AUDITION PROCESS:

The Dancin' Divas audition process consists of two main components. In order to continue to the final phase of auditions, a dancer must be called back. Callback criteria includes demonstration of prior dance training that has offered an understanding of both technical dance language and body alignment; a high level of stamina and general physical fitness; overall appearance and stage presence; and the physical and artistic potential for success as a Dancin' Diva team member. Audition components will be conducted in 2 phases. Phase 1 is the Preliminary On The Spot Audition (in person) OR Virtual Audition (video submission) and Phase 2 is the Final Audition. Preliminary Auditions will consist of the Technique/Flexibility Component and Solo Performance Component . Phase 2 consists of the Advanced Technique/Flexibility Component and the Field Show Style Group Dance Component. Please note that all dancers are given equal consideration. The team typically consists of 10-15 dancers; however, the size of the team varies due to the talent level during the audition process.

CLOTHING/ APPEARANCE

Each dancer must be in fitted 2 piece black dance attire that clearly enables the viewer to observe the dancer's technique. Dancers must wear a black sports bra or crop top, black dance briefs, dance tights, and the dance shoe of their choice. No skirts, no loose fitting t-shirts, no leg warmers, and no costumes. Dancers are highly discouraged from wearing attire that is overly revealing or distracting. It is recommended that care be taken to wear attire that is most suitable for your body composition. Hair and make-up should be neat, all tattoos must be covered, and all body piercings must be removed. We do have a size limit and it is a criteria at judging during both phases of the audition process. Due to the nature of our uniforms and routine choreography, candidates must be in great physical shape and have lean, toned, and appealing physique. Candidates should be appropriate weight range for their height.

ROUND 1 (ON THE SPOT AUDITION OR VIDEO SUBMISSION):

All applicants must prepare a 60-90 second choreographed dance in the style of their choice (no vulgar lyrics).The routine should highlight the dancer's strengths and show them as a performer. The purpose of the solo is to show the candidate's range as well as their ability to project. The solo performance should demonstrate the dancer's artistic qualities and flow of movement. If submitting a virtual audition, the video must be uploaded to our site no later than 8:00am CST on Saturday, March 7th. Please be sure to state your name, years of dance experience and current school or dance affiliation at the beginning of the video. Videos should be clear and should only include the candidate (no group routines).

TECHNIQUE/FLEXIBILITY At a minimum, dancers will be expected to demonstrate the following required skills; if, you have additional technical skills or tumbling you'd like to showcase please feel free to do so. The objective is to assess each dancers confidence and overall audience appeal, showmanship and projection.

- Turns - double pirouettes , a la seconde
- Leaps - jete, leap in 2nd position, calypso
- Jumps- toe touch
- Extensions- right or left heel stretch
- Splits- Right, Left

CALLBACKS/ROUND 2:

Based on the evaluation of each applicant's performance during the Round 1 virtual auditions, a select group of applicants will be asked to return for the final audition round which takes place April 24-26, 2020. All candidates who receive an invitation must be available to return, IN PERSON, for the final round in April 2020. All candidates who are invited to the final round will be required to submit two letters of recommendation from individuals that can attest to their character, dedication, time management and team work skills. All letters must be sent via email to aamudivas@gmail.com no later than April 10th. *Round 2 finalists will be notified no later than Friday, March 20th if they are selected to move on. If you do not receive notification from a staff member inviting you to Phase 2, we welcome you to audition again next season.

- ❖ One letter must be from a current or former team/group instructor/coach/advisor
- ❖ One letter must be from a current or former professor, counselor, administrator, or employer.

WHAT TO BRING:

1. A recent Headshot Photograph (4x6 or larger preferred). Photos will not be returned. Please note that "selfies" are not suitable for submission as a headshot.
2. Liability Form
3. Audition Agreement

TECHNIQUE/FLEXIBILITY/COACHING:

At a minimum, dancers will be expected to demonstrate the following required and desired skills:

- *Turns - pirouettes: double, triple, fouettes, a la seconde
- *Leaps - jete, leap in 2nd position, calypso
- *Jumps- toe touch, turning disc jump
- *Extensions- right and left heel stretch
- *Splits- Right, Left, Center

Dancers will be taught and coached on a brief advanced across the floor combination. The objective is to evaluate their technical ability and assess how quickly the dancer picks up choreography, how they respond to and incorporate corrections, and how they function as a member in a rehearsal-like setting.

GROUP PERFORMANCE:

All applicants will be required to learn a field style group dance routine for the final round of auditions. The same routine will be taught to all candidates and ample time will be allowed for review and questions. The panel will be evaluating the applicant's ability to execute the Dancin' Diva style and perform in a group setting. The routine will be performed in groups of two to four. All dancers will be judged on the following: enthusiasm, projection, ability to recall choreography and incorporate showmanship without significantly altering the movements, agility, overall performance and potential as a prospective Dancin' Diva.

INTERVIEW

The purpose of the interview is to gain insight into the student's character, maturity, poise, sincerity, ability/desire to commit for one full year given the team's rigorous schedule; and help assess their suitability as a prospective team member.
